Michelle Noon – criminologist, educator and Wyvernian

Michelle Noon is a Victorian-based educator and criminologist with extensive experience in the private, public and not-for-profit sectors as an advisor, consultant, trainer, researcher and leader. She is also a Wyvernian, having attended Kingswood College during her primary school years.

Most recently, Michelle worked with White Ribbon Australia, Australia’s only male-led campaign to prevent violence against women. Prior to this Michelle has worked for beyondblue: the national depression and anxiety initiative, KPMG and Victoria Police.

Michelle has research and practice expertise in justice and criminology; mental health; preventing violence against women; and social change. She is also completing her PhD in Clinical Psychology at Swinburne University and lectures at RMIT University in criminology, crime prevention and responding to family violence.

At the PFA AGM on Tuesday 27 May, Michelle will present on current challenges for parents and young people in relation to high prevalence mental health concerns and outline strategies to assist.

AGM Notice of Meeting

Join us for the Annual General Meeting at 7.30pm on Tuesday 27 May. We already have some enthusiastic nominees for PFA Executive positions and welcome other nominations from the floor.

Have ideas for PFA improvement, social activities or fundraising.
Join the team and help us put them into action

Students are most welcome to attend with their parent as are other community members including current and potential families, staff, Council members, Alumni and our local community.
